

4

History Week

Public Lectures

by Distinguished Visiting Historians

Department of History

Sir George Williams Faculty of Arts

Thursday, November 18th

8:30 p.m. (H-920) Professor Albert Feuerwerker,
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

"The Chinese Economic Model And China's History"

Professor Feuerwerker has made a significant contribution to the growing library of scholarly works concerned with modern China. His studies, in such publications as Encyclopedia Americana, Harvard Journal of Asiatic Studies and the Michigan Quarterly Review, encompass economic, social and political development in Modern China.

Lectures are free, and are held in the Hall Building, 1455 de Maisonneuve Boul. West.

